In 1970 she retired from the post of Administrator of the Social and Rehabilitation Services within the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, a position which was described as giving the largest administrative responsibility to any woman in the history of the Federal government. FROM OUR PRESS CLIPPINGS FILE

Washington Afro-American (on the Federal City College - Gallaudet College football game): Federal City College Coach Ed Brooks, "I want to give Gallaudet College all the credit in the world. They have such a small squad and most of the players go both ways. If our kids played that hard we'd be undefeated."

And..."Gallaudet has one of the most unusual Sports Information Staffs in the area competently headed by Mrs. Diane Shapiro. Let's hear it for women's lib."

This and other clippings will be on display on the bulletin board in the hallway next to the Office of Public Information in the near future.
